FOR OFFICIAL USE GNL)

STAT

STAT STAT

as stated.

Approved For Release 2006/03/10 : CIA-RDP82M00591N000100080003-1

STAT

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE Security Committee

SECOM-D-315 31 March 1978

DCI Security Committee SUBJECT: Security Procedures for Imagery Transmission SystemWashington 1. Attached for your information is a copy of the security policy and procedures drafted for the Imagery Transmission - Washington (ITS-W) by for this system. advised me that he had drafted the attached in the interests of having some security procedures for the ITS-W system and in the absence of any security policy known to him which would be applicable to the system. 2. Request you review the attachment and advise the SECOM staff of what changes should be made in this policy to make it consistent with current directives or with proposals for change such as the draft DCID to establish a single system of administration for handling compartmented materials.	MEMOR	ANDUM FOR:	Colonel Russell T. Newman, USAF Chairman, Compartmentation Subcommittee
1. Attached for your information is a copy of the security policy and procedures drafted for the Imagery Transmission - Washington (ITS-W) by advised me that he had drafted the attached in the interests of having some security procedures for the ITS-W system and in the absence of any security policy known to him which would be applicable to the system. 2. Request you review the attachment and advise the SECOM staff of what changes should be made in this policy to make it consistent with current directives or with proposals for change such as the draft DCID to establish a single system of administration for handling compartmented materials.	FRÓM:		DCI Security Committee policy and procedures drafted for the Imagery Transmission - Washington (ITS-W) by for this system advised me that he had drafted the attached in the interests of having some security procedures for the ITS-W system and in the absence of any security policy known to him which would be applicable to the system. 2. Request you review the attachment and advise the SECOM staff of what changes should be made in this policy to make it consistent with current directives or with proposals for change such as the draft DCID to establish a single system of administration for handling compartmented materials.	SUBJE	ECT:	Security Procedures for Imagery Transmission SystemWashington
	Wash for atta the to h staf cons such for	cy and proceington (ITS-this system ched in the ITS-W syste im which wo 2. Reques f of what contact with as the drahandling co	edures drafted for the Imagery TransmissionW) by advised me that he had drafted the interests of having some security procedures for m and in the absence of any security policy known uld be applicable to the system. t you review the attachment and advise the SECOM hanges should be made in this policy to make it current directives or with proposals for change ft DCID to establish a single system of administration